PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Motivated professional seeking immediate employment, with hands-on experience as an administrative assistant in a sports organization and a high school diploma focused on natural sciences. Organized, communicative, and dependable, with strong English skills developed through a six-month immersion program in the United States. Ten years of competitive rhythmic gymnastics reinforced discipline, goal focus, performance under pressure, teamwork, and attention to detail — skills that transfer directly to administrative work, front-desk service, reception, and fast-paced operations that require reliability and professional ethics.

CAREER OBJECTIVE

To join the workforce right away in roles such as administrative support, customer service, reception, assisted sales, or office operations, full-time or part-time, in any sector that values organization, clear communication, and initiative (services, retail, education, events, and others). Open to on-the-job training and learning new tools and routines. Plans to pursue higher education in the future when circumstances allow; the current priority is to contribute in practice and build broad professional experience.
